Welcome to the annual Moth Bowl 2025 at Medley Sailing Club

Saturday 14th June sees the return of the British Moths to Medley Sailing Club on the River Thames in Oxford, to compete for the Moth Bowl and Bossom's Cup on what is always a great day's close racing with or without wind!

Access to the club is from Binsey Lane, off the main Botley Road approached from the A34 (eastern Botley Road at the railway bridge in town is still closed), and then via the Bossoms' gate (next to the Perch pub) to the club, postcode: OX2 0NJ. Car parking is very limited on site, so visitors are requested to leave their cars on Binsey Lane during the day after delivering boats.

The club and Bossoms' gate will be open from 08:30ish, with tea/coffee/pastry available on arrival. Registration is from 09:30 with the 1st of 4 races starting at 10:45, lunch at 13:15 and prizes, tea/cake at around 17.00.

Lunch will be soup, bread and cheeses and fruit – please let us know if you have any specific food requirements.

All Moth sailors, their families and friends are welcome, and we are working on a good turnout of the home fleet.

Please let us know as soon as possible if you are planning to attend, and if you have any questions please don't hesitate to get in touch.

We look forward to seeing you all on the water.
